SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

CHRIST CHURCH
ON CAPITOL SQUARE

WELCOME TO CHRIST CHURCH!

We're glad you're here. Please help us get to know you by filling out a welcome card and place it in the offering plate. At Christ Church, we are delighted to have visitors join us for worship, education and fellowship.

On Sundays, please visit the Welcome Center just inside the narthex (at the Wilmington Street entrance) before or after any service and look for a friendly greeter to answer any questions or point you in the right direction.

Interested in becoming involved or feeling connected? Please contact Cooper Bratton, our Parish Life Coordinator (cbratton@christchurchraleigh.org, 919.834.6259).

PRAYER CONCERNS AND PASTORAL CARE

During regular office hours, please contact Sarah Johnson (919.834.6259 x106) or one of the clergy about events needing pastoral response. During non-business hours, emergency contact numbers for clergy are available at the number above.

Prayers for Healing and Wholeness are offered each Tuesday during the 8:05 a.m. Service of Holy Eucharist, and on the second Sunday of each month during the 5 p.m. Celtic Eucharist.

We also invite you to fill out a welcome card with your prayer request and place it in the offering plate.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

The Bible is a foundational part of our church. Our outline of faith states, "We understand the meaning of the Bible by the help of the Holy Spirit, who guides the Church in the true interpretation of the Scriptures." The Bible is the epic, challenging, and life-changing story of God's relationship with humanity.

This service will include readings from Holy Scripture following the lectionary, a guide of biblical readings for Sundays and Holy Days. We take very seriously the role of Holy Scripture in our spiritual life and our worship.

The Book of Common Prayer (or BCP, the red book found in your pew) contains our prayers and services for our life as a church. We call these our liturgies. Our liturgies for Holy Eucharist, Baptism, marriages and burials, daily prayers, and for prayers and worship over almost any human experience live deep within the words of the BCP.

These liturgies span thousands of years of Christian faith and human experiences of celebration, sin, grief, and joy. What ties us together as Episcopalians is not a particular confession, a hierarchy of religious authority, or a particular dogma, but our common prayers. Our prayers shape our beliefs.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues, facing the Holy Table, then says:

Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

SANCTUS

S 128

The Celebrant continues, recalling Christ's words in the blessing of the bread and wine, then says:

Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All: We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Celebrant: Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

All: AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

ACTS 2:14A, 22-32

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know— this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him,

‘I saw the Lord always before me,
for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;
therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover my flesh will live in hope.

For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption.

You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

“Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying,

‘He was not abandoned to Hades,
nor did his flesh experience corruption.’

This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.”

PSALM 16

¹ Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
I have said to the Lord, “You are my Lord,
my good above all other.”

² All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

³ But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.

⁴ Their libations of blood I will not offer,
nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.

⁵ O Lord, you are my portion and my cup;
it is you who uphold my lot.

⁶ My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

⁷ I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel;
my heart teaches me, night after night

- ⁸ I have set the Lord always before me;
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- ⁹ My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;
my body also shall rest in hope.
- ¹⁰ For you will not abandon me to the grave,
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- ¹¹ You will show me the path of life;
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

I PETER 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith-- being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire-- may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

JOHN 20:19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Lord, have mercy.

For all the blessings of this life, especially for the birth of Clara Boyce Odom, granddaughter of Gail & Mac Barham; for the baptisms of Frances Winborne Boyles, Holland Elizabeth Cutts, Charles Alexander Dembicks, Lucy Eliza Roche, Eliza Kathryn Scott, Elise Cora Stanley, Noah James White; for the marriage of Caroline Christine Rekuc & Anthony Zane Reynolds; and for those in whose honor the altar flowers have been given: Frances Callaway McCommon and the outreach efforts of Christ Church; let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, especially William Sims Propst Sr., father of Buck Propst; and for those in whose memory the altar flowers have been given: Robert McCommon; and Anne Dixon & Jackson McKay; let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

In the communion of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To thee, O Lord our God.

Silence.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Resurrection - The Rev. Mary Davila - Parish Hall

He is Risen! This much we proclaim but the Gospels are not of one voice in describing what unfolded on that first Easter morning. In adult forum, we will look at the various accounts of the Resurrection, and consider beliefs about resurrection from a Jewish and early Christian perspective. We will also talk about what Jesus' resurrection means for our lives.

Outreach Ministries - Ray Mains and Jack Ford - Room 128

Ray Mains and Jack Ford will lead a discussion on the Grants Committee process and procedure for outreach funding at Christ Church, beginning at 10:10 a.m.

Confirmation Service May 7, with Bishop Lee

This spring we have youth and adults who will be confirmed on Sunday, May 7. We will welcome 16 new members at the 9 a.m. service, and our youth class of 48 will be confirmed at the 11 a.m. service. Bishop Peter Lee will be visiting Christ Church, preaching at both services. and celebrating our confirmands. We encourage the parish to attend the services and to welcome our newest members. There will be a small reception at 10:15 a.m. for all confirmands and the parish in the Christ Church Commons.

Tuesday Morning Bible Study - Led by The Rev. Meg Buerkel Hunn

Tuesdays, 9:30 a.m. until 11 a.m. in Room 128

All are invited as we study the Bible and seek a deepening of the faith we share. Come as you are with your questions, doubts, hopes and dreams as we come together to talk about following Jesus. We will discuss two of the readings assigned for the following Sunday, given the context of our lives and our culture.

Bible Works: Tools for Living - The Gospel of John

The current Bible Works series is an in-depth exploration of the beautiful and poetic Gospel of John, which draws us into the mystery and love of the person of Jesus of Nazareth. Through Bible Works we learn what this Gospel meant to those who heard it in the 1st century and what it has to say to us today. Bible Works is offered each Tuesday from 7 a.m. until 8 a.m. and from noon until 1 p.m.; the same lecture is presented at these two different times for the convenience of participants. The lectures can also be found on our website.

This all-women's Bible study meets on the first and third Wednesdays of the month from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. Please contact Paola Learoyd at pmrunc@gmail.com with any questions, or if you're interested in joining this group.

Save the Date for a Fundraiser Supporting St. Augustine's University - May 18

Celebrate St. Augustine's University! Please mark your calendar for Thursday, May 18, when Jim and Allene Adams, the Christ Church Vestry, and the St. Augustine's Committee will host a fundraiser for our neighbor St. Augustine's University, with whom Christ Church has renewed a historic partnership. This evening will be an opportunity to gather with friends from Christ Church and St. Augustine's, hear remarks from University President Everett Ward, and enjoy good food, drink, and company. Tickets for the event are $100 and will support the great work of St. Augustine's and the dreams of its students. Please look for your email invitation this week.

All-Parish Weekend at Kanuga - June 2-4

Plans are underway for a very special All-Parish Weekend at Kanuga, June 2-4. All are invited to join us in the beautiful N.C. mountains, where we will enjoy music, programs for adults and children and plenty of free time to enjoy the great outdoors.

The Rev. Jim Adams will lead our adult program, and The Rev. Mary Davila will help with worship services. We will have a children's program and activities for youth. Register by visiting <http://bit.ly/kanuga17>, or by picking up a registration form on the table in front of Lin's desk. If you have any questions or need a registration form, please contact Cooper Bratton at cbratton@christchurchraleigh.org.

Outreach Opportunity with Clark's Promise

Are you interested in volunteering to help those experiencing homelessness in Raleigh? We have the perfect opportunity through the Oak City Outreach Center. The center provides meals and fellowship in the downtown Raleigh area every Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. and on some holidays. You can volunteer as an individual or with a group. A short training session is required and the next one will be held on May 17, from 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. If you'd like to learn more, please contact Tosharia Brown and oakcity.outreach@raldioc.org.

Hope of Jesus Children's Home Mission Trip 2017 Information Session - May 7

Christ Church has been a long-standing support of Kim and Mike Miller's ministry to the children of Honduras, the Hope of Jesus Children's Home. Each year, the church sends a mission team to the home where they build a lasting and supportive relationship with the children, the Millers and the community where they live. A team is being formed for the 2017 trip, which is scheduled for Aug. 5-12. An information session will be held on Sunday, May 7, at 10 a.m., in Room 126, for all who are interested. Contact Marshall Lamb - 919-414-8079 or mlamb@us.ibm.com - or Suzy Lamb - 919-414-8018 or suzyslamb@gmail.com - if you have any questions or would like additional information.

Bach Festival Concert

The Raleigh Bach Soloists & The N.C. Baroque Orchestra - April 28 - 7 p.m.

Praised for their seamless sound, strength and contextual accuracy, The Raleigh Bach Soloists & The North Carolina Baroque Orchestra, directed by David Jernigan, will give their final performance of the 2016-2017 season in grand baroque style with three of Bach's most celebratory works, with period trumpets, timpani, oboes, strings and organ. The concert will take place at Christ Church.

Bach's first-ever Easter Cantata, Christ lag in Todesbanden, BWV 4, opens the evening with its subdued and mysterious Sinfonia evoking the scene at Christ's empty tomb early in the darkened hours of Easter morning. From there we erupt into full-blown celebration with cantata 137, "Praise the Lord, the Mighty King," and motet 230, "Praise the Lord, all ye nations," famous for its "Hallelujah" fugue. The evening ends with the brilliant, joyful cantata, "We thank you God," BWV 29 with its fast and intricate obligato organ writing and large-scale orchestration.

About The Bach Soloists

The Raleigh Bach Soloists is a fully professional vocal ensemble whose members have completed multiple degrees in music and specialize in singing music of the oratorio repertoire. Their members have performed with notable baroque and choral ensembles around the country including the Chicago Bach Ensemble, Boston Baroque, Apollo's Fire, Tenet, the Finzi and the choir of Trinity Wall Street. Founded in the spring of 2016, The Raleigh Bach Soloists have already performed nine of Bach's many cantatas and three of the six motets and next year will give a complete performance of The Christmas Oratorio in period.

Children's Ministry

Children's Ministry wants YOU...

To be part of the Baker WInng team. We are recruiting for next year. No experience is needed and all ages are welcome. We are looking for teachers for ages 2 through 5th grade and the curriculum is provided. We also need volunteers for substitute teachers, snack subs and a craft team. Spring EYC Sundays at Church

April 23, 30

Applications for YLC Now Available

Applications to serve on next year's Youth Leadership Committee (YLC) are available in the youth ministry office. YLC helps plan, organize and run youth events and programs and serves on committees within the parish, including vestry. Students should be current 8th-11th graders and will need to attend a planning retreat Aug. 7-9, in addition to attending Wednesday meetings twice each month. If you're interested, please contact Liz Stroff at lstroff@ccral.org.

Episcopal Youth Community (EYC)

EYC supplements the Sunday School program by providing fellowship and outreach activities to create a peer-based community, featuring open dialogue about faith and spirituality and opportunities for ministry in the church, as well as the broader Raleigh community. EYC takes place on Sunday nights and allows different grades to join together.

High School Bible Study

HS Bible Study, grades 9-12, views movie segments each week followed by discussion using a verse or quote to learn about the Word by discovering the depth of how God is revealed to us through daily life. We rotate from students' houses to church basement every Wed., 7:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. Very casual - all you need to bring is yourself! Movie information as well as locations is sent weekly through our youth emails. Contact Liz Stroff, lstroff@ccral.org.

Is your child graduating from high school this year?

We will honor graduates on Sunday, June 4, at the 10 a.m. service. We will list all graduates' names (high school and college) in the bulletin. We'll also honor the high school graduates by serving breakfast that day. The graduates are encouraged to wear their cap and gown for the service. If you have a child graduating from high school this spring, please contact Martha Cox at mcox@ccral.org, with the following information by May 8 - High school graduates full name; parents name(s); school name; and please let us know if your high school graduate will attend the service. We also need a photo (digital copy preferred) of your high school graduate. RSVP for the number attending breakfast on June 4 (graduates and family members).

Diaper Train Youth Summer Service (rising 7th grade and older)

Sign up here - <http://bit.ly/diaper17>

The Diaper Train provides diapers to low-income families in Wake County, improving the lives of babies and toddlers. The program is run by volunteers and serves 1,000 children each month. Duties may include wrapping, stocking and carrying diapers for clients. This takes place at Saint Saviour's Center - 616 Tucker Street.

HUGS Camp

Registration - <http://bit.ly/hugscamp17>

HUGS is a unique camp for unique people that brings together young people of diverse abilities. It is run by The Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina at The Summit in Haw River State Park. Each camper with special needs has a helper camper who makes sure they have a safe, fun, God-filled week of summer camp. Helper campers (age 14+) take part in a day of training with counselors and nurses to learn how to care for the campers. Staff positions are available for those 18 and older. Our very own The Rev. Meg Buerkel Hunn is the camp chaplain and will be there all week! If you have any questions feel free to reach out to her - mhunn@ccral.org.

Vacation Bible School Youth Volunteers (current grades 6-12) | Registration - <http://bit.ly/vbsvol17>

During the week of Vacation Bible School we encourage youth (grades 6-12) to sign up to serve as volunteers with this important ministry. Students will work in classrooms with children or at particular stations helping with the daily activities. You may sign up to volunteer from 8:30 a.m. until 12:15 p.m. for the entire week or any combination of days. VBS 2017 will be held the week of June 19-23. All student volunteers must have a 2016-2017 youth medical release form on file prior to the beginning of VBS.

Wake Relief Youth Summer Service | Registration - <http://bit.ly/wakerelief17>

Wake Relief is a food pantry that provides a week's worth of groceries to families in need. Some of the volunteer help that's needed includes stocking shelves with canned food items, carrying groceries to client's cars, unloading deliveries from the Inter-Faith Food Shuttle, taking out trash and recycling, and light cleaning. A waiver will be on site for each participant to sign. Two youths can sign up for each date. Work will take place at Saint Saviour's Center - 616 Tucker Street.

"Episcopally Speaking"

A closer look at the language and movements of the Episcopal Liturgy.

Fifty Days - The feast of Easter is a season of 50 days, from Easter Eve through the Day of Pentecost. From early times in the Greek word pentecost (fiftieth day) was used also for the whole Paschal season. During this season there is no fasting. The Council of Nicaea (325) directed that Christians are to pray standing. The word "alleluia" (praise the Lord) is said or sung repeatedly, which contrasts sharply with the season of Lent when the alleluia is omitted. The color of liturgical vestments and hangings is either white or gold. The BCP notes that it is customary for the Paschal candle to burn at all services of the Easter season. The "Alleluia, alleluia" may be added to the dismissals and their responses during the Great Fifty Days.
