POEM: THE EARLY BIRD

Ted Kooser

Still dark, and raining hard on a cold May morning

and yet the early bird
is out there chirping,

chirping its sweet-sour
wooden-pulley notes,

pleased, it would seem,
to be given work,

hauling the heavy bucket of dawn

up from the darkness,
note over note,

and letting us drink.

HYMN: Come down, O Love divine

1 Come down, O Love di - vine, seek thou this soul of mine,
 2 O let it free - ly burn, till earth - ly pas - sions turn
 3 And so the yearn - ing strong, with which the soul will long,

and vis - it it with thine own ar - dor glow - ing;
 to dust and ash - es in its heat con - sum - ing;
 shall far out - pass the power of hu - man tell - ing;

O Com - fort - er, draw near, with - in my heart ap - pear,
 and let thy glo - rious light shine ev - er on my sight,
 for none can guess its grace, till Love cre - ate a place and kin - dle it, thy ho - ly flame be - stow - ing.

 and clothe me round, the while my path il - lum - ing.

OPENING SENTENCES

Celebrant: Stay with us, Christ, for it is evening.

People: Make your Church bright with your radiance.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE READING: JOHN 15:16-27; 16:4B-15

Jesus said to his disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Reading is followed by a brief period of silent reflection.

you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body.

Sanctus sung by all

St. Anne Mass, Macmillan

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly_ Lord, God of_ pow-er and. might._
 — Heav'n and earth are_ full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in_ the_ high - est. Bles-sed is he, O bles-sed is_ he who comes in the name_ of the Lord._____ Ho - san - na in the_ high - est, ho - san - na_ in_____ the high - est.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God,
 creator of the universe and giver of life.
 You formed us in your own image
 and called us to dwell in your infinite love.
 You gave the world into our care
 that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.
 But we failed to honor your image
 in one another and in ourselves;
 we would not see your goodness in the world around us;
 and so we violated your creation,
 mistreated one another,
 and rejected your love.
 Yet you never ceased to care for us,
 and prepared the way of salvation for all people.
 Through Abraham and Sarah
 you called us into covenant with you.
 You delivered us from slavery,
 sustained us in the wilderness,
 and raised up prophets
 to renew your promise of salvation.
 Then, in the fullness of time,
 you sent your eternal Word,
 made mortal flesh in Jesus.

Celebrant: Born into the human family,
and dwelling among us,
he revealed your glory.
Giving himself freely to death on the cross,
he triumphed over evil,
opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us,
Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread,
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:
“Take, eat:
This is my Body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine,
and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them, and said:
“Drink this, all of you:
This is my Blood of the new Covenant,
which is poured out for you and for all
for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All:* Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Remembering his death and resurrection,
we now present to you from your creation
this bread and this wine.
By your Holy Spirit may they be for us
the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.
Grant that we who share these gifts
may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world.
Bring us into the everlasting heritage
of your daughters and sons,
that with all your saints,
past, present, and yet to come,
we may praise your Name for ever.
Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
to you be honor, glory, and praise,
for ever and ever.

All:* AMEN.

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept.

Lamb of God sung by all

St. Anne Mass, Macmillan

Outreach

Greensboro Tornado Relief Supply Drive

Christ Church is serving as a drop-off center for an interfaith relief effort for the families and communities affected by the recent Greensboro tornado. Several Sunday deliveries will be made so please bring in the following supplies and place them in the donation bin near the front desk/entrance. Immediate needs include: bottled water, non-perishable food and snacks, diapers of all sizes (children's and adults), feminine hygiene products, travel size toiletries, baby food, and paper towels. Small games and activities for children are also welcome, as three schools have lost their roofing and will be closed the remainder of the school year. Books are great! If you have questions about this effort, contact Martha Cox mcox@ccral.org. Today (May 20) is the last day of our supply drive.

Refugee Resettlement Ministry Update

Under the guidance of Lutheran Family Services, Christ Church has been mentoring a family from Syria for a little over a year. The family is doing wonderfully. The oldest child, elementary age, has learned English at warp speed and loves math. The middle child will head to Kindergarten next year, and the three year old adores her big sisters. The father is working and takes ESL classes, and the mother is a fabulous cook who also takes ESL classes. They are preparing for Ramadan, a season that lasts from May 17-June 14 this year. They will abstain from eating from sunrise to sunset and engage in prayers in addition to the five daily. The family has repeatedly expressed their gratitude for the people of Christ Church and offers extraordinary hospitality to our ministry team. If you would like more information about this ministry, please contact Mary Tucker at mary.tuck8484@gmail.com.

"Episcopally Speaking"

A closer look at the language and movements of the Episcopal Liturgy.

Pentecost is the great festival that marks the birth of the Christian church by the power of the Holy Spirit. Pentecost means "fiftieth day" and is celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday. Red is the liturgical color for Pentecost Sunday. The clergy wear red vestments to signify the work of the Spirit. It is also a custom in many churches for the people in the congregation to wear red on the Day of Pentecost as well. We wear red to remind us of the fire of the Spirit. Red recalls the tongues of flame in which the Holy Spirit descended on the first Pentecost.

A letter from The Rev. James P. Adams

Dear Parish Family,

The scriptures tell us “To everything there is a season” and as spring turns to summer we are in a season of transitions on our clergy staff. This week, Jenny Brown, is beginning a much deserved, two month sabbatical. Today, May 20, following the 10 a.m. service, we will have a farewell reception for Callie Swanlund, to give thanks for her ministry with us as she goes on to new opportunities. On May 27, we will joyfully welcome a new priest into the fold, Daniel Reeves.

Last weekend, Michael Buerkel Hunn, spouse of our Meg, was elected Bishop of The Diocese of the Rio Grande, which includes New Mexico and part of West Texas. While we celebrate and give thanks for this new ministry, and the new adventure that awaits the Buerkel Hunn family, we also grieve that this means Meg will leave her role at Christ Church in late July. We will give Meg and her family an appropriate “Thank you and Godspeed” celebration this summer.

The life of this church we love marches on, as it has for nearly 200 years, blessed by the faithful procession of leaders, lay and ordained. In August, the clergy team of Jenny Brown, Mary Davila, Daniel Reeves, and I, will join with our lay staff, and vestry to lead us into a new program year filled with beautiful worship, enriching educational offerings, and meaningful opportunities to serve. “To everything there is a season” and we look forward to sharing this one with you!

I give thanks to God every day for you, and this privilege I have been given to be your Rector.

Together in Christ,

The Rev. James P. Adams
Rector

Confirmation Registration for Rising 8th Grade Students

Confirmation is a sacramental rite where you are affirming your covenant, or promise, from Baptism that was made by your parents. Confirmation is your turn to prepare and renew or strengthen your beliefs. In Confirmation we ask for God's help in our relationship with God and with the Church. There is not a set time in life to be confirmed. Everyone must answer for themselves "I do", "I Believe," and "I will with God's Help." Your church and family provide the support, but it is your decision. We begin to offer confirmation as a class for students during their 8th grade year; however, you can be confirmed at other ages as well. Confirmation registration and information is on the Christ Church website under the youth page. For any questions, please contact Liz Stroff, lstroff@ccral.org. We are looking forward to a wonderful year.

Confirmation registration is due June 10: <http://bit.ly/confirmation18>

Sponsors registration is due September 15: <http://bit.ly/sponsors18>

We hope you will consider joining us for an amazing opportunity to experience God's love through travel, mission, humility, culture, and worship. This trip allows students to work outside the comforts of their daily life and allows growth by both the receiving and sharing of faith, love, and grace.
